

Acting

It's time to take the stage! This class will focus on the basics of acting development, from projection to improvisation to line memorization. Curriculum will involve more in depth acting skills including emotions, interactions on stage, character development and advanced improvisation.

