

Stacy Desprez grew up in Bremen and started dancing at the age of 4. Her love for dance took her to the Atlanta School of Ballet when she was 13 to train with the youth ensemble 3 days a week. At ASB, Stacy started assisting in tap and jazz classes in addition to the classes she was taking. At the age of 18, Stacy auditioned for, and received, a scholarship to the Joe Tremaine Dance Centre in Los Angeles, CA.

Stacy trained with some of the best choreographers in the world while in LA. She returned home in 1990 to pursue her dream of opening a dance studio. After 34 years of owning Stacy's Dance Centre, she sold her studio to Nichole Escobar of West Georgia Dance Center. Stacy is very excited about continuing to teach at WGDC and hopes to continue to inspire her students and develop their love for dance! Stacy lives in Bremen with her husband, James and they have 2 daughters, Kenzie and Reese.
