

Preslie Walker is the Acro and Pre-Dance teacher at WGDC. She has been dancing and tumbling since she was just four years old and is certified in Acrobatic Arts, bringing both experience and specialized training to her students. At 22, she is currently attending West Georgia Technical College, where she is pursuing a degree in Criminal Justice. Along with teaching dance, Preslie also enjoys giving horseback riding lessons, combining her love of teaching with her passion for working with kids. She brings patience, energy, and encouragement to every class, helping her students build confidence while learning new skills. Preslie is excited for the upcoming season and looks forward to guiding her dancers as they grow, reach their goals, and develop a true love for dance.
