

Turns & Technique

Concentrates on the technical aspects of leaping, jumping and turning for dancers. Focuses on flexibility in these skills, weight distribution, & direction changing while in movement. Turns and Technique gives the dancers a chance to perfect the technical elements they work on in their other classes. All of this is practiced, while incorporating strong technical accountability and improvement.

